

What is said about ...

Arabs and Terrorism

Film Screening and Discussion

Place: Tingell Tangell

Time: 20:00

Date: Saturday June 14

This ground-breaking documentary critically examines the dominant discourse in the West, particularly in the United States, about the supposed relationship between Arabs and Terrorism. Unique in its breath and scope, this documentary was researched in six languages, filmed in 10 countries and includes more than 95 interviews with Middle East experts and politicians, as well as dozens of street interviews conducted in the United States, Western Europe and the Middle East.

Sample of Featured Interviewees:

Hasan Nasrallah, Secretary General, Hizballah, Beirut

Khalid Mish'al, Head of Political Bureau, Hamas, Damascus

Ramadan Abdallah Shallah, Secretary General, Islamic Jihad, Damascus

Nawal Sa'dawi, Feminist Leader and Novelist, Cairo

Amira Haas, Journalist, Haaretz Newspaper, Jerusalem

Zeev Boim, Deputy Defense Minister of Israel (Likud Party), Tel Aviv

Admiral Ami Ayalon, Former Chief of the Navy and Security Service, Haifa

Jeane Kirkpatrick, Senior Fellow, American Enterprise Institute (AEI), Washington

Michael Scheuer, Former CIA Senior (al-Qa'ida) Analyst, Washington

For more information on the event, please contact info@ifccs.org.

For more information on the film, please visit www.arabsandterrorism.com.

This event is co-sponsored by:

ALTER HABITUS AND THE INSTITUTE FOR COMPARATIVE CONFLICT STUDIES (IFCCS)